14 "SECTION 2. IC 23-2-1-19 IS AMENDED TO READ AS 15 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 19. (a) A person
 16 who offers or sells a security in violation of this chapter, and who does 17 not sustain the burden of proof that the person did not know and in the 18 exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the violation, is 19 liable to any other party to the transaction who did not knowingly 20 participate in the violation or who did not have, at the time of the 21 transaction, knowledge of the violation, who may sue either at law or 22 in equity to rescind the transaction or to recover the consideration paid,
 23 together, in either case, with interest as computed in subsection (g)(1),
 24 plus costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, less the amount of any cash 25 or other property received on the security upon the tender of the 26 security by the person bringing the action or for damages if the person 27 no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be 28 recoverable upon a tender less:

29 (1) the value of the security when the buyer disposed of the 30 security; and

31 (2) the interest as computed in subsection (g)(1) on the value of 32 the security from the date of disposition.

33 (b) A person who purchases a security in violation of this chapter, 34 and who does not sustain the burden of proof that the person did not 35 know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of 36 the violation, is liable to any other party to the transaction who did not 37 knowingly participate in the violation or who did not have, at the time 38 of the transaction, knowledge of the violation. The other party to the

1 transaction may bring an action to rescind the transaction or for 2 damages, together, in either case, with reasonable attorney's fees, upon 3 the tender of the consideration received by the person bringing the 4 action.

5 (c) A person who, for compensation, engages in the business of 6 advising others, either directly or through publications or writings, as 7 to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in,
8 purchasing, or selling securities, or who, for compensation and as a part 9 of a regular business, issues analyses or reports concerning securities 10 and:

11 (1) violates section 8, 12.1(b), 14, or 26 of this chapter;

12 (2) employs a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud a person; or

13 (3) engages in an act that operates or would operate as fraud or 14 deceit upon a person;

15 is liable to the other person, who may bring an action to recover any 16 consideration paid for advice, any loss due to advice, interest at eight 17 percent (8%) each year from the date consideration was paid, costs, and 18 reasonable attorney's fees less the value of cash or property received 19 due to the advice. It is a defense to an action brought for a violation of 20 section 12.1(b) or 26 of this chapter that the person accused of the 21 violation did not know of the violation and, exercising reasonable care, 22 could not have known of the violation.

23 (d) A person who directly or indirectly controls a person liable under 24 subsection (a), (b), or (c), a partner, officer, or director of the person, 25 a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, an 26 employee of a person who materially aids in the conduct creating the 27 liability, and a broker-dealer or agent who materially aids in the 28 conduct are also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent 29 as the person, unless the person who is liable sustains the burden of 30 proof that the person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable 31 care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of 32 which the liability is alleged to exist. There is contribution as in cases 33 of contract among the several persons liable.

34 (e) A tender specified in this section may be made at any time before 35 entry of judgment.

36 (f) A cause of action under this statute survives the death of a person 37 who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

38 (g) Action under this section shall be commenced within three (3) years after discovery by a governmental entity or the person bringing the action of a violation of this chapter, and not afterwards. No person may sue under this section:

(1) if that person received a written offer, before suit and at a time when the person owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest on that amount from the date of payment to the date of repayment, with interest on:

(A) interest-bearing obligations to be computed at the same rate as provided on the security; and

(B) all other securities at the rate of eight percent (8%) per year;

less the amount of any income received on the security, and the person failed to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt; or

(2) if the person received an offer before suit and at a time when the person did not own the security, unless the person rejected the offer in writing within thirty (30) days of its receipt.

(h) No person who has made or engaged in the performance of a contract in violation of this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter, or who has acquired a purported right under a contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base a suit on the contract.

(i) A condition, stipulation, or provision binding a person acquiring a security to waive compliance with this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter is void.

(j) The rights and remedies specifically prescribed by this chapter are the only rights and remedies created by this chapter, but are in addition to any other rights or remedies that exist at law or in equity."
